What is Avengers S.T.A.T.I.O.N.? (Scientific Training and Tactical Intelligence Operative Network)

This story-driven walk-through exhibit brings you into the Avengers' Training Facility where you begin your journey to become a S.T.A.T.I.O.N. Agent. You will enter the Marvel Cinematic Universe and receive the uniquely customized science and technology training and tactical intelligence operating system to create your own exclusive experience.

Through the superposition of multiple technologies, Marvel Avengers S.T.A.T.I.O.N. creates a surreal world where movies and reality come together. The exhibition offers some of the world's most advanced audio-visual technology and interactive experience equipment, which creates a space that allows you to use your imagination within the world of the Marvel Super Heroes.

You've loved watching the movies, but now the Marvel Cinematic Universe can become more real. Here, you have the chance to dive deeper into this unforgettable universe and train to become an agent of S.T.A.T.I.O.N.

Start Your Mission

After entering the Avengers S.T.A.T.I.O.N. you will delve into the history, engineering, technology, and profiles of the Avengers.

Captain America: Super Soldier

See Captain America's Cryogenic Training chamber where you can test your endurance on Captain America's motorcycle, view his vibranium shield, and understand the story of why he joined the fight.

Bruce Banner's Lab

The biological laboratory of Dr. Bruce Banner provides insights into the mind of the Hulk. You will explore the evolution of his brain and observe the powerful gamma rays that release his anger.

Hall of Heroes

Explore the Hall of Heroes featuring Black Widow's suits and weapons as well as those of Hawkeye, Captain America, Ant-Man and Falcon.

Asgardian Power

This room pays tribute to the god of thunder, Thor, as you are immersed in a 180° surround screen that describes the fabled Asgard. You are given the chance to lift Thor's hammer, Mjolnir, to possess the awesome power of Thor. Are you worthy?

Iron Man's Hall of Armor

Perhaps one of the most iconic elements in the Marvel Cinematic Universe, Tony Stark's variety of armors are here for you to see all in one place, including the magnificent 3 meter high Hulkbuster armor.

Chitauri and Dark Elves

You will even get a chance to observe hermetically sealed Chitauri and Dark Elves at a close distance, but be prepared to be decontaminated after you visit this room.

Ultron's Final Fight

Good faces evil in this final challenge. You will join your favorite Avengers and compete against the evil forces of Ultron in an interactive experience.

Massive Official Merchandise Awaits You!

After completing the entire mission of Marvel Avengers S.T.A.T.I.O.N. you will go into the on-site merchandise area, which has a large number of souvenirs and memorabilia, including action figures of the Marvel Super Heroes, super-cool T-shirts and bags.

You can also pose for photos to commemorate this epic journey and highlight this moment in time with the Avengers! You'll love sharing it!

It is impossible to imagine what kind of adventure and excitement this exhibition will bring to

FUTEA Town, Xi'an.
