Good news, Potterheads – another Harry Potter-themed attraction will be heading to Singapore this year.

Harry Potter: Visions Of Magic will be making its Asia debut at Resorts World Sentosa (RWS) in late 2024, announced Warner Bros. Discovery Global Themed Entertainment and NEON in a press release on Wednesday (Mar 27).

In the interactive art exhibition, visitors can explore some of the most mysterious corners of the wizarding world, such as the Room of Requirement, Newt’s Menagerie and the Ministry of Magic.

And unlike the Harry Potter: A Forbidden Forest Experience, this exhibition has an indoor venue, which spans over 40,000 sq ft.

"Harry Potter: Vision Of Magic combines our beloved franchise with an interactive art experience creating an all-new kind of 'magic' for our fans," said Peter van Roden, Senior Vice President of Warner Bros. Discovery Global Themed Entertainment.

"Not only are we excited to be bringing the world tour to our fans in Singapore but to be expanding the experience with never-before-seen environments."

Before coming to Singapore, the exhibition made its world premiere in Cologne, Germany in December last year, where around 138,000 tickets were sold before the grand opening. The Singapore edition is said to be even bigger, with an additional 10,000 sq ft of space.

The exact date of the launch has yet to be announced.
