What a time to be alive as a Potterhead; While Harry Potter: A Forbidden Forest Experience is still ongoing, another immersive exhibition that will whisk you away to the Wizarding World has just been announced. While the former is fully outdoors – and subject to weather conditions, or perhaps pesky pixies – the new Harry Potter: Visions of Magic is a large-scale indoor experience.

Set to be held at Resorts World Sentosa, Harry Potter: Visions of Magic first made its world premiere in Germany, and received overwhelming success to the point of being nearly sold out at time of writing. Singapore's edition is said to be even bigger and better, with an additional 10,000 square feet of space for even more magical moments to unfold.
