At this immersive experience, you'll be transported to the heights of the Andes, where Machu Picchu has stood for centuries, shrouded in mystery and majesty. The exhibition brings to life the rich culture of ancient Peruvian civilisations and showcases over 130 stunning artefacts. From intricately designed pottery and textiles to royal tombs and funerary objects, each piece tells the story of a people behind these ancient people. As you walk through the exhibit, you'll witness the craftsmanship and knowledge that defined ancient Andean people. Plus, you'll encounter one of the most dazzling, impressive gold collections to tour the globe. Some ancient Andean civilisations believed that gold was the sweat of the sun, a gift from the gods that symbolised power, divinity, and eternity. Each of the treasures on display (intricately designed masks, jewellery, ceremonial weapons, and more) provide a window into spiritual and ceremonial life. It's a fascinating look at the cultural heart of ancient Andean empires and a reminder of the remarkable artistry that flourished in ancient Peru.

Plus, for an add-on fee, the VR experience takes you into Machu Picchu. Thanks to cutting-edge VR and 360-degree motion chairs, you'll feel as if you're floating through the mist-covered mountains of the Andes, with the same sense of awe and discovery that Hiram Bingham must have felt when he first visited the Lost City in 1911. It's an adventure that will transport you thousands of kilometres and centuries back in time, without ever having to leave Sydney.
